The Officer's Daily Log

Meet Boutiques Manager Amanda Mans

Amanda Mans was born in the Northern Cape of South Africa in a small town called Kuruman.

After completing college, Amanda came aboard Grand Princess in 2003 and was quickly promoted to Boutiques Manager two years later. Her fondest memories at sea are from the 2009 Dawn Princess World Cruise, when she experienced the wonders of Egypt. However, Amanda's favorite destination is relaxing Waikiki Beach in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Back in Postmasburg, South Africa, Amanda likes fishing, camping and enjoying "Braai" (barbecues) with family and friends.

By Boutique Manager Amanda Mans

When you do go ashore here in St. Maarten, you'll find 37 beaches as well as a variety of activities such as mountain biking, kayaking and guided tours that explore the island's French and Dutch heritage. If you're like me and you just can't resist sampling the local fare, be sure to head to Grand Case, the "gourmet capital" of the Caribbean.

Bargain hunting for local specialties at our various destinations is one of the pleasures of every cruise. You'll find plenty of jewelry, leather products, art and other tchotchkes in St. Maarten, but one of the most distinctive souvenirs you can bring home is a bottle of the island's unique guavaberry liquor.

Of course, throughout this cruise on Regal Princess®, our convenience store makes it easy to find snacks, toiletries, suntan lotion and any other sundries you may have forgotten to pack. Then there's our collection of boutiques, where you'll find a fabulous range of fine merchandise and exceptional values. Everyday tax- and duty-free savings can add up to as much as 60% off suggested U.S. retail prices.

Looking to find something special on board? Our wide selection of fine brands includes Effy, Asher, Swarovski, Majorica, Crislu, Lancome, Estee Lauder, Chanel, Guess, Citizen and Tissot, as well as a wide variety of signature Princess merchandise. Also, you can pick up some casual wear or formal attire from name brands such as Puma, Tommy Bahama, Nautica, Tommy Hilfiger and Joseph Ribkoff.

And for your convenience, branded liquor and tobacco are available for pre-ordering throughout your cruise—these purchases will be ready for pick-up prior to disembarking.

In port or at sea, I hope you'll find shopping yet another highlight of your cruise.

From the Navigator

During the night, Regal Princess maintained her easterly heading across the Caribbean Sea before making our approaches to St. Maarten on Thursday morning. We made our final approaches to the South of St. Maarten, passing Fort Amsterdam on our port side as we embarked our pilot and maneuvered the vessel alongside our berth. On Thursday evening, with all pre-departure checks complete and all passengers and crew onboard, Regal Princess started singling up her mooring lines and with all lines gone, we lifted off the berth and began moving astern before making our way out of the harbor. After disembarking our local pilot we altered course to Starboard, setting a westerly course across parallel to the southern coast of St. Maarten until we passed Pelikaan Point 1' on our starboard side and began setting a northwesterly course.

Security Screening

All passengers returning to the ship must pass through security screening. Objects containing metal such as mobile phones, cameras, binoculars, reading glass cases, large belt buckles, batteries, electrical devices, etc. will cause the walk through metal detector to alarm and delay entry onto the ship. Such items need to be placed into the trays provided before you pass through the metal detector. Passengers with, for example, surgical metal implants, large amounts of metal jewelry, metal shoe stays, etc. may need to undergo further screening, e.g. hand-held metal detector or "Pat Search."

Alcohol Policy

Alcoholic beverages that are purchased at ports of call or duty free from the ship's gift shop will be collected for safekeeping and delivered to the passenger's stateroom on the last day of the cruise. A member of the ship's staff will be at the gangway to assist passengers with the storage of their shoreside alcoholic purchases while our Boutiques staff will assist passengers with shipboard alcoholic purchases. *Princess Cruises is not responsible for any alcoholic beverages confiscated by shoreside security staff. Such items are not eligible for monetary refund or replacement.
